The JITC Washington Operations is located on the Naval Surface Warfare Center (NSWC), Indian Head, Maryland. NSWC Indian Head is located approximately 20 miles south of Washington, DC on a 3,500-acre peninsula surrounded by the Potomac River and the Mattawoman Creek in Charles County, Maryland.

Great seafood, rich history, top-flight golf, first-class fishing and acres and acres of some of the most beautiful forestland on the East Coast can be found in Charles County.

Charles County is rich in the history of our nation... come and visit the Dr. Mudd House where John Wilkes Booth's broken leg was set by Dr. Mudd after the assassination of Abraham Lincoln. Thomas Stone, signer of the Declaration of Independence, General William Smallwood, Revolutionary Commander of the "Maryland Line," "Smallwood's Retreat," and James Craik, a physician to George Washington, were all residents of Charles County. All of these and many more historical treasures abound in and around the beautiful countryside of Charles County, Maryland.
